INSTITUTIONAL REPORT

Santander University-UNISANT
(Universidad Santander)

Founded in 2007, Santander University is a private institution of higher education accredited by the Secretariat of Public Education (Secretaría de Educación Pública) of Mexico.

In general, courses leading towards degrees at Santander University are equivalent to courses completed at a regionally accredited institution of higher education in the United States. In order to be admitted into Santander University, applicants must have the High School Diploma (Bachillerato) issued by the Secretariat of Public Education of Mexico. This is the equivalent of graduation from a college preparatory program at an accredited high school in the United States. The official language of instruction is Spanish. The highest degree awarded by Santander University is the Doctor (Doctorado) degree.

Santander University offers various distance education programs. Currently, Santander University offers eight online Licenciature (Licenciaturas) programs, five online Master's programs (Maestría) and four online Doctoral (Doctorado) programs. All of these programs are accredited by the Secretariat of Public Education of Mexico.
